In the early days of the colony, when the Founders first began to venture out of the original base to explore their surroundings on foot, they had found it to be approximately a day's travel north of Franklin. Hence its name..swooping manner, as though keeping time to a slow waltz that only she could hear, with her face raised..Then, slowly, she realized what her mind had responded to unconsciously in the faces of the three children in the Chironian sculpture. The artist had been not merely an expert, but a master. For fear was there too, not in any way that was consciously perceptible, but in a way that slipped subliminally into the mind of the beholder and gripped it by its deepest roots. That was why she had felt disturbed all the way back from Franklin. But there was still something else. She could feel it tugging at the fringes of awareness-something deeper that she hadn't grasped even yet. She turned her eyes to the sculpture again..Leilani appeared to be surprised. "Don't you read newspapers?"..admit he smelled better than your average corpse."..Stern watched, listened, and said nothing..them. Are we, Micky?"..feet above Curtis, maybe less.
